

My Diary in Serbia: April 1, 1915-Nov. 1, 1915 (WWI Centenary Series)

Brave Serbia has not been forgotten in her hour of need by the women of England. For the Womens Imperial Service League, with Mrs. St. Clair Stobart as directress, went out to Serbia under the ?gis of the Serbian Relief Fund, after arduous work out in Antwerp and after at Cherbourg. Mrs. Stobart decided that ours should be a Field Hospital owing to typhus and other fever raging in the country. Written in 1915, this work contains a wealth of observations on the area, and gives great insight into the contemporary views of the conflict. This book is part of the World War One Centenary series; creating, collating and reprinting new and old works of poetry, fiction, autobiography and analysis. The series forms a commemorative tribute to mark the passing of one of the worlds bloodiest wars, offering new perspectives on this tragic yet fascinating period of human history. Each publication also includes brand new introductory essays and a timeline to help the reader place the work in its historical context.
