

The Late Great Planet Earth

In an effort to satisfy mans age-old curiosity about the future, modern-day prophets and astrologers are enjoying the greatest revival since the ancient days of Babylon. In the midst of the many prophetic voices clamoring to be heard, there are authentic voices which have been overlooked by modern, sophisticated man...the voices of the ancient seers of Israel, the Hebrew prophets. Three millenniums of history are strewn with evidence of their prophetic marksmanship, and to ignore their incredible predictions of mans destiny and the events which are soon to affect this planet will be perhaps the greatest folly of this generation.
