

Feel Good Stories: An Enchanted Self Book

Feel Good Stories is a marvelous collection of just what the title implies: stories that make you feel good. Author Bernice Becker, age eighty-four, takes you through her life, from before she was born to her retirement days at Reeds Landing. As you accompany her through the foibles and adventures of growing up, marriage, teaching, and retirement, you find yourself laughing, crying, and delighting in the adventures of being alive. Who could not laugh aloud when you read her adventures in a ritzy department store, how she handled her underwear falling down. And who could not applaud her courage and stamina when, as she turns eighty, she competes in a talent pageant. Enjoy!
