One of the greatest pieces of fiction to come out of Britain in the 80s... Butlins book is a stylistic triumph. Irvine Welsh One of the greatest pieces of fiction to come out of Britain in the 80s . . . Butlins book is a stylistic triumph. Irvine Welsh Morris Magellan has a house in the suburbs, nice wife and kids. But Morris is also a chronic alcoholic, heading fast towards self-destruction. Morris is not hoping to meet Ms. Right and acquire the two kids that will straighten everything out. He already has all this and it hasnt kept him off the bottle. Ron Butlins tale of one mans inner turmoil is haunting, harrowing, yet strangely uplifting; a masterpiece from a neglected Scottish writer.
