

The Curse of the Werewolf: Fantasy, Horror and the Beast Within

Looking at the how the werewolf has been interpreted by anthropologists, psychologists and criminologists, the author explores the werewolves appearance across a number of popular forms, from film to graphic novels. The author looks at the roots of the myth and at its appearance in Gothic horror, at ideas of the beast within and Freuds wolf-man to representations of criminality, wolf imagery in Nazism, the body horror films of the 1980s and finally, to the werewolves revival in contemporary fantasy.
