

The Westminster Doctrine of the Inspiration of Holy Scripture

Hugh Martin (1821-1885) was a Scottish Presbyterian preacher and author. He introduces this short work as follows: I have thought that, without mingling much in the exciting debates of the passing hour, I might do an acceptable service to humble Christian souls, by pointing out and fastening attention upon the deliverance which the Westminster Confession gives on the doctrine of the Inspiration of Scripture, and which, in its wisdom, simplicity, grandeur, and easily demonstrable verity, has satisfied the Church for centuries, and will doubtless continue to express her convictions till the Lord shall come again.
