

Kiowa White Moon

In 1864 life was changing rapidly for the Kiowa and Comanche. As they continued to raid the ranches and the supply wagons along the Santa Fe Trail, they became more of a thorn in Americas side. Eventually, Kit Carson was sent in to put an end to the raiding. When White Moon becomes wounded by Kit Carsons attack, his horse ends up bringing him to a farm, where Constance lives. She finds the Kiowa in a cave, and nurses him back to health, not realizing how her action of saving his life, would tangle her into his life in a way she never imagined.
